

INTRODUCTION

Hello, I'm Pratyaksh Gupta, and I come from the beautiful city of Dehradun in Uttarakhand. I completed my schooling at Cambrian Hall School and am currently pursuing a Bachelor's in Computer Science at Graphic Era Hill University in Dehradun.

I have a passion for coding and problem-solving, particularly in web development using REACT JS and NODE JS. Besides that, I love exploring new places and am an optimistic person who always sees the bright side of things. I also enjoy spending time with friends, having a good time, and creating interesting projects, such as designing captivating landing pages.

My ultimate goal is to become a skilled web developer and secure a position with a leading software company, where I can apply my skills and make a valuable contribution.

CONVERSATION

Ram: Hey, Shyam, Is that you? After such a long time!

Shyam: Hey, Ram. When did you come back? How come you're in this fair?

Ram: I boarded my flight from Delhi day before yesterday. It's been so long since I've been in my hometown, and my college was having a semester break.

Shyam: I am so glad to see you. Come on, let's walk and talk further.

Ram: Wait, wait...on this swing. My little brother is riding.

Shyam: Oh! So, Nikhil is also here.

Ram: Yeah, he was insisting I take him to the fair, so I came.

Shyam: Oh, those were the good old days, and this swing was always my favorite.

Ram: I remember it well. We had so much fun together back then.

Shyam: Absolutely, and it's great to relive those memories.

Ram: It's nice to see the tradition continuing. So, what's new with you? How's college been?

Shyam: College has been quite demanding, but I'm managing. I've been keeping busy with my studies and some extracurricular activities.

Ram: That's good to hear. It must be nice to have a break and come back home for a while.

Shyam: Definitely, it's refreshing to be back and catch up with friends and family. How about you, Ram? How have things been with you?

Ram: Things have been going well. I'm working at a local tech company now, and it's been quite a learning experience. But, you know, it's always great to come to the fair and relive some childhood memories.

Shyam: That's awesome. I'm glad to see you doing well, and I'm sure you're doing great at your job.

Ram: Thanks, Shyam. Let's make the most of this fair and enjoy some more swings and snacks, just like old times.

Shyam: Absolutely, Ram. It is good to be back and spend time with old friend.

SWOC DESCRIPTION

or learning a new skill. Your strengths should be the positive aspects of yourself that help you reach your goal, like strong communication skills or a good work ethic. Your weaknesses should be the negative aspects of yourself that hinder you from achieving your objective, like procrastination or self-doubt. Opportunities are the favorable situations or circumstances you can take advantage of to reach your goal, such as courses, workshops, mentors, or scholarships. Threats are the unfavorable situations or circumstances that you can face or avoid to achieve your objective, such as deadlines, exams, distractions, or Challenges.

SWOC TABLE

Strengths	Weaknesses
Good interpersonal skills	Try to do too much at once
Motivated	Find uncertainty quite difficult to manage
Good teamworker	Can be too single-minded
Organised – meet targets
Leadership skills
Opportunities	Threats
Good position at work	Balancing work and home life
Commitment to further study	Uncertain commercial market, especially in IT
Support from work for further training	What are the priorities?
Supportive family

SWOC ANALYSIS

1-Define weakness and strength each in a sentence.

Strengths are the things you are good at or the advantages you have.

Weaknesses are the areas where you struggle or the things that hold you back.

2- What is your greatest weakness?(in your opinion).

In my opinion, my biggest weakness is time management. I sometimes struggle to prioritize tasks effectively and meet deadlines.

3-What do people most often criticize about you?(Any two drawbacks).

People often criticize my tendency to procrastinate, which can sometimes lead to delays in completing tasks. Another drawback that people have mentioned is my lack of assertiveness in expressing my opinions or concerns.

4: What is the biggest criticism you have ever received from your:

- a. parents: Sometimes, they've criticized my lack of organization and time management.
- b. siblings: They've pointed out my occasional indecisiveness.
- c. relatives: Some have criticized my reserved nature.
- d. friends: A few friends have mentioned my tendency to overthink things.
- e. teachers: Teachers have noted my need for more active class participation.

5: What do you find are the most difficult decisions to make and why?

The most difficult decisions for me are those involving major life changes, as they often require a lot of uncertainty and stepping out of my comfort zone. It can be challenging to make these decisions because of the fear of the unknown.

6: How do you handle failure? I view failure as a learning opportunity.

When I face failure, I analyze what went wrong, learn from it, and use that knowledge to improve my future efforts. It motivates me to become better.

7: How do you handle success?

I try to remain humble and grateful for success. I use it as a reminder of what I can achieve when I work hard. It encourages me to continue setting and achieving new goals.

8: How do you view yourself: calm, aggressive, patient, impatient, laid back, domineering, confident, submissive, social, reserved? And why?

I see myself as a patient, laid-back, and confident individual. I believe these qualities help me stay composed under pressure and approach challenges with a positive mindset.

9: Who do you compare yourself to and why?

I compare myself to individuals like Steve Jobs because I find inspiration in their innovative thinking and determination.

10: What major challenges have you faced so far, and how did you handle them?

I faced a significant academic challenge during college but overcame it by seeking help from mentors and adjusting my study habits.

11: What was the biggest compliment you have received so far?

The biggest compliment I received was for my determination in pursuing a challenging project which I built during freelancing.

12: What have you learned from your mistakes?

Mistakes have taught me the importance of adaptability and persistence. They have shown me that failing is part of the journey to success.

13: What motivates you?

My motivation comes from a desire to continually improve myself and make a positive impact on others' lives.

14: What is your greatest strength?

My greatest strength is my ability to adapt to new situations and learn quickly.

15: How will your strength(s) help you go ahead in life and be successful?

My adaptability helps me navigate change, and my ability to learn quickly allows me to acquire new skills as needed in different situations.

16: What have you achieved on the basis of your strength(s) so far?

My adaptability and learning ability have allowed me to excel in various roles, whether it's academic, professional, or personal. I've been able to quickly adapt and thrive in new environments.